

Fourth activity

Choose one robot (but you might have time to talk to them all) and explain what you need help with. Remember: misunderstandings can happen quickly, so think carefully about how you choose your words. Your goal is to make sure the robot understands how to help you—without making a mistake.

